DETAILED ACTION

Oath/Declaration

1. Applicant must submit new Oath/Declaration in harmony with the Denial of the Petition a copy of which was mailed to applicant on 2 April 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1 – 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chui et al. (US 6,657,702) alone or in view of Calhoun (US 6,181,409) or Yamamoto et al. (US 5,703,701).
Chui et al. have the basic teaching disclosing a method for sending digital online images as well as hard copy or prints of the images to multiple recipients. The customer order is divided into suborders. See Fig. 3A, 3B and related text. Each recipient may receive different images, col. 7, line 52+. In Fig. 7c, see related text, each recipient may receive different messages. In col. 23 discloses that the images may be in the form of a post card, a holiday card, an invitation or a thank you card. A computer, other hardware (including image processing, developing and photofinishing devices), and communication means are used to perform the operations. It is not entirely clear the remarks or messages are backprinted onto the photographic prints, but backprinting various information is well known in the art as shown by the secondary references.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Sapin-Ligniers (US 2001/0049639) has a system and method for production and dispatch of virtual photographic card containing messages to plural recipients.
